

Nomination of beneficiary form

Death in service lump sum life cover

This form is for letting us know who you would like your lump sum life cover paid to if you were to die while employed by Sainsbury's/Argos.

J Sainsbury Pension Scheme Trustees Limited (the Trustee) will decide who will receive any payments and cannot be bound by your decision, but they will take your wishes into consideration.

This form is NOT for nominating who you would want to receive your pension pot from Legal & General.

There is a separate form for this here if you are employed by Sainsbury's or www.legalandgeneral.com/argos if you are employed by Argos.

1. I nominate the person(s) below to receive the lump sum life cover if I die while employed by Sainsbury's/Argos:

If you wish to nominate additional people, please fill in their details below and the proportion (or percentage) of your lump sum that you would like them to receive.

Under the life cover rules, a range of potential beneficiaries can be considered to receive any lump sum payment in the event of your death (including, but not limited to, your spouse, children, other family members, anyone you nominate on your nomination form).
